

What Is Your "Estimated" Recalculated GPA?

Most colleges recalculate your gpa for admission, scholarships, and honors programs using only grades earned in academic courses taken 9-11. Some colleges give extra points for honors, AP and IB; others do not. DIRECTIONS: Enter the letter grades you have earned, or are projecting to earn, in the appropriate columns below for grades 9-11. Complete the next box to determine total number of units and grade points. Then complete the gpa calculation for Method I used by all state universities in Florida, and Method II used by many private schools. Remember, Senior grades are important* but are not generally used in the recalculated gpa.
